

SOCIETY

Captain and Mrs. Gates and Sanders Lincoln have issued invitations for the wedding of their daughter, Chris-tine Lee, to William Clinton, ensign United States Navy. The marriage will take place on Saturday evening, August 19, at 8 o'clock, in Trinity Church, Newport, Rhode Island. Ensign Clinton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Clinton, of West Broad Street, Richmond. A reception will follow the ceremony at the Naval Training Station. A number of prominent Richmond society will attend the wedding.

At Westhampton Until Fall.
Mrs. J. Scott Parrish and her daughter, Eleanor, will leave the first of October to be gone for the remainder of the summer. They will stop at Baltimore and New York en route for Westhampton, Long Island, where they will be guests of friends. Mrs. Parrish and Miss Parrish have recently returned from Asheville, N. C., where Miss Parrish was guest of honor at several interesting entertainments. This will be the first week at the Parish country home, "Minnebaya," in Chesterfield County, Leaven For "Mountain View."

Colonel William A. Palmer is leaving this week for his country home, "Mountain View," near Blacksburg. He will be accompanied by his two daughters, Mrs. Frank Christian and Mrs. George Young, and Mrs. Young's son, William, and Palmer, Mrs. Christian and Mrs. Young will be at Blacksburg until early October.

United From France.
Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Currie have sailed from France. They will land shortly in New York and come direct to Richmond, where they will be guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Currie, at their home on Monument Avenue. Much entertainment will be done in their honor during their stay here.

McGreggor's Garden Party.
A "McGreggor's Garden Party" will be given Friday evening on the grounds of the Barton Heights School, under the auspices of the Church Workers' Society of Epiphany Church.

There will be ice cream and candy. A fortune teller will also be one of the attractions of this novel entertainment.

Returned Home.
Miss Ellen Wallace returned last week to Richmond, who had been guest of Mr. and Mrs. Claude M. Bain at their home in Norfolk. Mrs. Bain was formerly Miss Margaret Herndon, of Richmond, whose wedding to Mr. Bain took place in the late spring.

Turn to page 10 for Royal Audiences.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Carter, Jr., and children will sail August 3 for Europe to be gone two months on the pilgrimage of the American Legionnaires. They have been at Kew Gardens Inn, Kew Gardens, Long Island, N. Y., since the latter part of June. Their long tour will include audiences at the summer places of President Millerand of France, King and Queen of Belgium, and the King and Queen of England.

Birthday Party.
The ladies little class of the Barton Heights Methodist Church entertained the inmates of the Virginia Home for the Infirm on Tuesday afternoon at a birthday celebration of nine of those in the home whose birthdays are in July. Individual birthday cakes with candles were given to those whose birthdays were being celebrated. An attractive entertainment was given by Miss Mary Dudley, elocutionist. Miss Elaine Scott and Miss James F. Strother, piano soloists; Miss Alice Scott, vocal selections; George Brown, violinist, accompanied by his aunt, Mrs. C. J. Brown. The other acts of the afternoon's entertainment were Mrs. R. J. Carter, president of the class; Mrs. L. C. Tucker, vice-president; Mrs. M. E. Strother, teacher, and Mrs. N. Courtice Scott.

August at Mountain Lake.

Mrs. James R. Green and her daughters, Elizabeth and Margaret, have rented a house at Virginia Beach, where they have spent the past three weeks. Mrs. Green and Misses Green will last night to spend the month of August at Mountain Lake and Tazewell.

THE HOPE OF THE WORLD

The war of 1914 laid half the nations of the world in the dust. Their homes, their industries, their peace must be restored by the rising generation. In them is the hope of the world.

To make motherhood easier, to secure for every baby a clean bill of health and a fair start in life—that is the problem.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an excellent medicine for mothers and for future mothers. For fifty years this medicine has been successfully in all non-surgical cases of women's diseases.—Adv.
